

	GRE	GMAT	LSAT	MCAT	PCAT	DAT
Purpose	The most widely accepted admissions test worldwide for graduate and business school.	Required for admission to a majority of business schools.	Required for admission to graduate law programs.	Required for admission to medical school.	Required for admission to pharmacy school.	Required for admission to dental school
Test Structure	Verbal Reasoning: One 30-minute section Quantitative Reasoning: One 35-minute section Writing Sample: One 30-minute section		(Arguments): Two 35-minute sections Analytical Reasoning (Logic Games): One 35-minute section Reading Comprehension: One 35-minute section Unscored: One 35-minute section Writing Sample: One 35-minute section	Chemical and Physical Foundations of Biological Systems: One 95-minute section Critical Analysis and Reasoning Skills: One 90-minute section Biological and Biomechanical Foundations of Living Systems: One 95-minute section Psychological, Social, and Biological Foundations of Behavior: One 95-minute section	Writing: One 30-minute section Biological Processes: One 45-minute section Chemical Processes: One 45-minute section Critical Reading: One 50-minute section Quantitative Reasoning: One 50-minute section	Survey of Natural Sciences: One 90-minute section Perceptual Ability Test: Reading Comprehension: One 45-minute section Quantitative Reasoning: One 45-minute section
Test Format	Computer-delivered. Calculator provided.	Computer-delivered.	Currently paper and pencil. Transitioning to digital (tablet) in September 2019.	Computer-delivered.	Computer-delivered.

